Today's Gospel Reflection

The healing of Bartimaeus from blindness can be interpreted both literally and metaphorically. There is another healing of blindness in Mark's Gospel at 8:22-26. In that instance, the man is brought to Jesus and healing takes place progressively. The man 'began' to see things clearly. He is sent home, instructed to avoid the village – as though urging him not to draw attention to himself. Bartimaeus has no intermediaries. He approaches Jesus directly and after being healed becomes a follower of Jesus. He knows who Jesus is and understands what it means to become His follower. Jesus affirms him: 'Your faith has made you well.' This is a pivotal point in Mark's Gospel. Bartimaeus comes to full sight - physically and spiritually – then Jesus progresses to Jerusalem where He will encounter great spiritual blindness and faithlessness. Bartimaeus challenges us to ask for healing from our own particular blindness.
