The Pope's Prayer Intention for the month of November

For the proper use of wealth.
Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good in solidarity with those who have less.

Please pray for the sick and housebound of our parishes:

Kevin Weardan, Victoria Leighton, Ellie Rose, Joe McIntyre, John Riley, Joe Kemp, Amanda, David Cochrane, Jessica, Christine, Patricia Sweeney, Josie Bateman, Barbara Black, Caspia Bragagnini, Valerie Tudor, Adrian Tudor, Stan Jackson.

To have the name of a seriously sick person on the newsletter, please submit their name and yours with your phone number.

Today's Gospel Reflection

When asked about the greatest commandment (Mt 22:35-40), Jesus named two- love of God and love of neighbour- which are inseparable and mutually fulfilling. Today's Gospel on the last judgment shows that love is the sole criterion for judgment and reveals why these two loves cannot be separated. The Judge is the Son of Man who, through his self-offering, inaugurated God's Kingdom of love. As the God-man, Jesus belongs fully to both the divine and human spheres, embodying God's enduring solidarity with us- Emmanuel, God-with-us. In him, we are united to both God and one another. Thus, every loving act toward a neighbour is also done to Christ and becomes, in him, an act of love toward God.

Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, and Judge of all the nations, open the eyes of our heart, that we may recognize you in our neighbours. Amen.
